

Aug. 23 1944

Mr John Harden
265 Auburn Ave. N.E.
Atlanta Ga.

Dear Mr Harden:

Since writing you yesterday, I have talked to Abe, and he said maybe we should come to Atlanta with you for the 17th if you have no one else. Pompey is playing in New York the 17th, so he could not join you until after that.

How much do you think we might make in Atlanta? It would mean I would have to keep my team on salary two days longer, which as you know amounts to a nice amount.

Please answer right away.

Very Truly Yours